HONOR THEIR DEAD

Memorial Services Held by Salem Elks Sunday

An Interesting Ceremony, in Which the Tribute of Affection and Memory Was Paid

The memorial services at the Grand Opera House yesterday afternoon by Salem Lodge of Elks was the best attended gathering given by a lodge organization in this city in years, and the services were the most beautiful and impressive ever witnessed here. Every seat in the beautiful auditorium was filled, and scarce enough room had been reserved to accommodate the members of the order, when they entered the house in a body. The Elks' orchestra played Chopin's funeral march as an opening number, when the lodge entered, and the seats on the stage were occupied by Exalted Ruler H. H. Olinger and his officers, and John E. Lathrop, orator of the day. Following the beautiful ritualistic work of the order, Secretary H. E. Albert called the roll of the deceased, in memory of whom the services were held, and, as each name was called, a candle, representing the deceased, was extinguished, a most beautiful ceremony.

After the singing of the opening ode, Judge T. L. Davidson offered a prayer, and this was followed by one of the gems of the service, a solo by Salem's sweet singer, Mrs. Hattie Parrish-Hinges, Millard's "Hear Us, Oh, Father."

The orchestra rendered Moses' "Hearts and Flowers" with telling effect, the soft musical strains chiming in well with the solemnity of the occasion. John E. Lathrop, of Portland Lodge No. 142, selected to deliver the memorial address, was introduced by Exalted Ruler Olinger. Mr. Lathrop is a finished speaker, and popular with Salem audiences, and his magnificent handling of a subject that is difficult at best for a layman, only increased his reputation as a platform orator. In modest terms he stated the objects of the order of Elks, and paid a beautiful tribute to the deceased members. At the conclusion of this address the lights were turned off, and the Elks' memorial tablet on the stage, bearing the names of the deceased, was illuminated, while an invisible choir softly sang, "Nearer My God Thee."

Miss Edna Hubbard, Salem's popular reader, recited "Thanatopsis," in a masterly style that won new laurels. Mrs. Hinges again favored the audience with a magnificent solo, White's "Only Trusting," winding up with the popular words of "Auld Lang Syne." A beautiful violin solo, splendidly rendered by Miss Stege, was followed by the closing ritualistic ceremonies, and the closing ode was sung, the audience joining in with the brothers of the order, after which Judge Davidson dismissed the lodge and visitors with the benediction.

The decorations and arrangements of the opera house were beautiful in the extreme. On the stage, grouped about the officers' chairs were the fittings of the lodge room peculiar to the order. In the foreground of the stage, which was arranged to represent a woodland scene, was the altar, covered with the Stars and Stripes, on which rested the Holy Bible, and the emblem of the order, an Elk's head, while the background was occupied by the stately mounted elk, one of the lodge's trophies, and the large memorial tablet, bearing the names of the deceased members, and the dates of their passing away. Potted plants were distributed in profusion about the stage, making a most beautiful effect. Tastefully decorated programs were distributed by the ushers, and the whole service partook of the character of a religious ceremony, and many were the comments favorable to the Elks' order, one of Salem's most popular lodge and social organizations.

DROPSY

Do Your Ankles or Limbs Swell? Are Your Eyes Puffy? We are the Sole Agents for the Only Thing Known That Cures the Kidney Diseases That Cause Dropsy, viz., Fulton Compound.

It is now well known that dropsy is not in itself a disease, but is nearly always a symptom of kidney disease that accompanies the chronic stages heretofore incurable. Hence, up to the discovery of the Fulton Compound Dropsy was incurable. It is now, however, curable in nearly nine tenths of all cases. Here is an interesting recovery, to which we refer by permission.

Mrs. Peter Gerberich of 308 Fillmore street San Francisco, became alarming dropsical. Her physician had finally to tap her every ten days, and was tapped nearly forty times and grew worse from day to day. The physician finally told her husband that she had Bright's disease of the kidneys, that it was in an advanced chronic state and beyond medical aid. Her heart also gave her the usual trouble and she was in such a serious condition the relatives were sent for. They put her on Fulton's Compound. It stayed on the stomach, the first thing that had done so for a week. The next week the dropsy diminished a little and the improvement was then gradual till her recovery was complete. This case was examined into by representatives of the San Francisco Branch of the Overland Monthly, and the genuineness of the case and the recovery were fully attested in their columns.

Mrs. Thomas Christ of 425 Twenty-seventh street, San Francisco, was also swollen with dropsy, as the result of chronic kidney disease, to more than seventy-five pounds beyond her normal weight, and had to be moved in a chair and was close to death's door although she had four physicians. She was put on the Fulton Compound. Three weeks showed improvement and in six months she was well, and presents this reference.

If you have dropsy don't temporize. There is only one thing known that will cure the chronic kidney disease that is called dropsy, viz., Fulton's Compound. The Fulton Compound cures Bright's and Kidney Diseases, all forms of Dropsy, John J. Fulton, Co., 428 Washington street, San Francisco, sole compounders. Beware of imitations. We are the sole agents for this city.
